A VIRGINIA CANDIDATE.
Joseph E. Willard, who has entered the political field in Virginia, as a candidate for the democratic nomination for Lieutenant Governor, is called in some quarters the richest man in that State. He is a lawyer by profession, and a capitalist by inheritance, being the son of Joseph C. Willard, one of the famous group of Willard brothers, owners of some of the most valuable lands in Washington. The father held a captain's commission in the Union army during the civil war, and the son having been born in 1865, the year of peace, has a double reason for allying himself with the progressive element in the South. One of the first things he did, on coming into possession of his estate, was to improve the available lots which had lain absolutely idle for many years, and to put in order property which, if already improved, had been allowed to run down. Whatever he has built he has built substantially, and on the very best modern designs.

His latest enterprise is the complete rejuvenation of that ancient landmark, Willard's Hotel, which had fallen into serious disrepair and was no longer a credit to Washington. Mr. Willard simply waited till he could perfect his plans satisfactorily, and then began tearing down the old pile. Even in this work his methods were characteristic. He did not propose to let the prestige of the old hotel lapse by even its temporary extinction; so he razed one part at a time, and while the building operations were going on in that corner of the site, the rest was in regular occupancy by guests. The speed with which the work is pushed is a marvel to many of the slower-going property owners here, the whole plan being so carefully prepared in advance that the gangs of men do not tread upon each other's heels, but are always ready to supplement each other's work with such promptness that there is no waste of effort or delay in waiting for material.

Mr. Willard is commonly known in Virginia by the title of "Colonel," which he acquired in service on Gen. Fitzhugh Lee's staff during the war with Spain. Early in that war he recruited and equipped a company of young Virginians, most of them farmers and sons of Confederate soldiers, accustomed to open-air life and plain fare, and tendered their services to the Government. With the same pride which he feels in the appearance of his property, he resolved that his soldiers should be a credit to their State in looks as well as deeds, and furnished out of his own pocket whatever funds were necessary beyond the stipend paid by the Government. [New York Post.]

PAITED BY MOLASSES.—Because Armand Smith, of Wilkesbarre Pa., has a bald head, an inventive mind and a wife, he was taken before Alderman Donohoe today, on the charge of attempting to murder. He is not guilty, and the case is funny, but he does not see it.

A few days ago, with his wife, he went to Lake Winola and there camped in a tent on shore. Everything went beautifully until Monday night, when a rain storm drove a lot of flies and mosquitoes inside the tent. The invasion occurred just as Smith was falling asleep, and his bald-head was a shining mark.

The weather was hot and he became hotter, and after a couple hours of vain effort with a palm leaf fan to keep the flies from his head, he conceived the brilliant idea of catching them. To do this he spread molasses thickly over his fan and placed it on a table, between himself and his wife. It was effective—too effective. I caught flies, and when his wife rolled over her face struck the fan and it stuck to her.

She awoke with a scream to find the molasses in her eyes, nose and mouth, and dashed out of the tent, shrieking "Murder!" Her alarmed husband followed, but she beat him off and declared he had tried to smother her. Nothing he did could convince her otherwise, and she left him. Tuesday she had him arrested. Alderman Donohoe said he would give his decision in a week.

THE ANNUAL SEA SERPENT.—A sea serpent made its appearance at Kingsport, Ont., 360 miles above tidewater, on Tuesday. The periodical summer visits of the monster so far inland have never been credited before, but possibly to set all doubt at rest the serpent exhibited himself to a Sunday school picnic at Channel Island. A large number of people saw it, and all descriptions correspond in making the animal have a head like a calf, but larger, as large as a man's head, fierce, staring eyes like coals of fire, heavy whiskers, the head and neck being grey. The serpent gave chase to Fred Cadeau, at Howe's Island, who had to seek a safe landing for himself and boat and narrowly escaped capture.

At the Sunday school picnic, where the serpent was a visitor, it raised its body partly out of the water and leisurely surveyed the picnic appointments and then glided away. The serpent is a rapid swimmer. When last seen it was making toward the Kingston penitentiary, where the Welland canal dynamite are incarcerated.

QUESTION ANSWERED.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers and grandmothers never thought of using anything else for Indigestion or Biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration or Heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. For sale by Ernest L. Allen, Claud M. Lennon, Warfield & Hall, Charles G. Lennon, W. F. Creighton & Co., and Richard Gibson.

A Mother Tells How She Saved Her Little Daughter's Life.
I am the mother of eight children and have had a great deal of experience with medicines. Last summer my little daughter had the dysentery in its worst form. We thought she should die, but nothing seemed to do her any good. I saw by an advertisement in our paper that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was highly recommended and sent and got a bottle at once. It proved to be one of the very best medicines we ever had in the house. It saved my little daughter's life. I am anxious for every mother to know what an excellent medicine it is. Had I known it at first it would have saved me a great deal of anxiety and my little daughter much suffering. Yours truly, Mrs. Geo. F. Burdick, Liberty, R. I. For sale by all druggists.

Best for the Bowels.
No matter what ails you, headache or cancer, you will never get well until your bowels are put right. CASCARETS help nature, cure you without a gripe or pain, produce easy, natural movements, cost you just 10 cents to start getting your health back. CASCARETS Candy Cathartic, the genuine, put up in metal boxes. Every tablet has C. C. stamped on it. Beware of imitations.

The wolf in the fable put on sheep's clothing because if he traveled on his own reputation he couldn't accomplish his purpose. Counterfeits of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve couldn't sell their worthless selves on their merits, so they put them in boxes and wrappers like DeWitt's. Look out for them. Take only DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. It cures piles and all skin diseases.
